The Ponce School of Medicine has been requested to provide a maximum of 10 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ for this activity. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. Ponce School of Medicine will submit for accreditation this activity to the Puerto Rico Office of Regulation and Certification of Health Professionals for 10 Credits subject to approval.
The faculty, committee members, and staff involved in planning this CME activity are required to disclose to learners any relevant financial relationship(s) that have occurred with any commercial interest(s) who products or services are discussed in the CME content. Such relationships are defined by remuneration in any amount from the commercial interest(s) in the form of grants; research support; consulting fees; salary; ownership interest; honoraria or other payments for participation in speakers’ bureaus, advisory boards, or boards of directors; or other financial benefits. The intent of this disclosure is not to prevent faculty with relevant financial relationship from planning or delivery of content, but rather to provide learners with information that allows them to make their own judgments. It remains for learners to determine whether financial interests or relationships may influence the educational activity with regard to exposition or conclusion. The Sociedad Puertorriqueña de Endocrinología y Diabetología has reviewed all disclosures and resolved or managed all identified conflicts of interest, as applicable.
